Statement from Swannanoa Gathering: “It is the policy of The Swannanoa Gathering that all students under the age of 16 come with an adult chaperone. The Swannanoa Gathering is an adult camp and as such does have adult activities in the evening. These include nightly beer tents and jams that continue well into the wee hours of the evening. We cannot be responsible for children under 16. If the family of a scholarship applicant feels that they are able to attend without a chaperone, we ask that you contact our office, and we will send you a release form to fill out and sign.”
