TOSCO MUSIC HOLIDAY PARTY – A CHARLOTTE TRADITION SINCE 2016

Join us Monday, December 14 in uptown Charlotte when Tosco Music transforms Knight Theater into Charlotte's living room for a special night of holiday songs and singalongs by 1,200 friends and neighbors!

Like all Tosco Music Parties, Tosco Music Holiday Party features more than a dozen diverse acts plus audience singalongs throughout the evening led by John Tosco and the TMP House Band & Singalong Choir. Don't miss this Tosco Music holiday tradition!

Enjoy classic and contemporary songs of the season in a variety of music styles at a concert that's great for school-aged kids and grandparents alike. Bring the whole family to celebrate the holidays with live music together! The event also makes a perfect gift or holiday outing for the office team, friends or neighbors. Groups of 6 or more save 20% with code GROUP20 or call the Group Ticket Office at Blumenthal Performing Arts 704-348-5752. Buy early & save 15% with code EARLY15 by November 14.

Performers so far include local gospel group Brighter Day Community Choir, a traditional family bluegrass band, The Biscuit Eaters, local R&B vocalist Mandyl Evans, the classical David Tang Quartet, Americana band Two Bird Stone led by Liam Thomas Bailey, Executive Director of Hickory Music Factory, and many more! Each year, the concert showcases a youth act alongside a wide variety of professional performers. This year premiers the "Sleigh Sisters" ensemble from Northwest School of the Arts, and Delaney Nolan, a frequent vocalist at Tosco Music Open Mic making her TMP debut!

We've been treated to many creative arrangements and new holiday originals over the years. This year local performing artist Charlotte Marie will debut her own Christmas song recently released on her first EP, "Velvet Christmas." Past Tosco Music Holiday Party performances and highlights are available at the Holiday Playlist on our YouTube Channel.

Tosco Music is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that serves musicians of all ages and genres while building community through music.
